2. Dissenter's Right of Appraisal

A stockholder has a right to dissent and demand payment of the fair value of his shares in any of the following instances under Section 80 of the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines (Republic Act No. 11232): (a) in case an amendment to the articles of incorporation has the effect of changing or restricting the rights of any stockholder or class of shares, or of authorizing preferences in any respect superior to those of outstanding shares of any class, or of extending or shortening the term of corporate existence; (b) in case of sale, lease, exchange, transfer, mortgage, pledge or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporate property and assets; (c) in case of merger or consolidation; and (d) in case of investment of corporate funds for any purpose other than the primary purpose of the corporation.

There are no matters or proposed corporate actions included in the agenda of the meeting, which may give rise to the exercise by a security holder of the right of appraisal.

Should any proposed corporate action be passed upon at the meeting, which may give rise to the right of appraisal, any stockholder who votes against the proposed corporate action may avail himself of the right of appraisal by making a written demand on the Bank for the payment of the fair value of shares held within thirty (30) days from the date on which the vote was taken. In order to perfect such right, the stockholder shall follow the procedures as described under Sections 81 to 85 of the Revised Corporation Code.

3. Interest of Certain Persons in or Opposition to Matters to be Acted Upon

No director, officer, nominee for election as director, or any associate of the foregoing persons, has any substantial interest, direct or indirect, by security holdings or otherwise, in any matter to be acted upon as contained in the agenda of the meeting other than election to office.

No director has informed the Bank in writing that he intends to oppose any action to be taken as contained in the agenda of the meeting.

B. CONTROL AND COMPENSATION INFORMATION

4. Voting Securities and Principal Holders

(a) Class of Voting Shares: 105,414,149 common shares entitled to vote as of May 16, 2023.

(b) Record Date: Stockholders of record as of May 16, 2023 are entitled to notice of and vote at the meeting.

(c) Nomination and Election of Directors and Independent Directors and Manner of Voting:

In accordance with Sections 22 and 26 of the Revised Corporation Code, Section 15 of The General Banking Law (R.A. No. 8791), Section 38 of The Securities Regulation Code, Rule 38 of the Implementing Rules and Regulations of the Securities Regulation Code, and Section 132 of the Manual of Regulations for Banks, and relevant circulars or memoranda, the Bank's Nomination Committee and Corporate Governance Committee adopted rules governing the nomination and election of directors. The rules pertinently state that the nomination forms shall be submitted to any of the members of the Committees or to the Corporate Secretary on or before May 2, 2023. The rules likewise state that the Committees shall pre-screen the qualifications of the nominees and prepare a final list of candidates, indicating the nominees for independent directors.

As to the manner of voting, Article III, Section 1 (e) of the Bank's By-Laws specifies that any stockholder who is not delinquent in his subscription shall be allowed to vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the stockholder or his duly authorized attorney-in-fact in accordance with the requirements of existing rules and regulations. In accordance with Sections 23 and 57 of the Revised Corporation Code, a stockholder is allowed to vote through remote communication or in absentia. On August 13, 2020, the Board of Directors approved the amendment of the Bank's By-laws, which allows the voting through remote communication or in absentia. On April 27, 2023, the Board of Directors approved to allow the conduct of the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders on June 15, 2023 and participation therein by the stockholders via remote communication or in absentia, in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Commission's (SEC) Memorandum Circular No. 6, Series of 2020. Please refer to Schedule "A" of the Information Statement for the Guidelines for Participation via Remote Communication and voting in absentia. Following Section 23 of the Revised Corporation Code, a stockholder may vote such number of shares for as many persons as there are directors to be elected, or cumulate said shares and give one (1) candidate as many votes as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of the shares owned, or distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as may be seen fit, provided that the total number of votes cast shall not exceed the number of shares owned by the stockholder as shown in the books of the Bank multiplied by the whole number of directors to be elected. Item D.19 of the Information Statement further discusses the voting and tabulation procedures of the Bank.

The Independent Directors, Mr. Philip S. L. Tsai, Mr. Genaro V. Lapez, Mr. Antonio S. Espedido, Jr., and Ms. Claire Ann T. Yap, are not officers or employees of China Bank Savings, Inc. (CBS) or any of its subsidiaries, which could reasonably be perceived to materially interfere with the exercise of their independent judgment in carrying out their responsibilities as independent directors.

The qualifications of the directors have been jointly pre-screened by the Nomination Committee and Corporate Governance Committee. All eleven (11) directors for re-election at the regular meeting of the stockholders have been found to possess all of the qualifications and none of the disqualifications for directorship set out in Section 38.1 of the Securities Regulation Code (SRC) and Sections 132 and 138 of the Manual of Regulations for Banks (MORB). For purposes of screening the independent directors, the Nomination and Corporate Governance Committees adopted the independence criteria set out in the above-cited provisions of the SRC Rule 38.1 and MORB.

The Nomination and Corporate Governance Committees, both presently chaired by Mr. Antonio S. Espedido, Jr., and regular members, Ms. Claire Ann T. Yap and Mr. Genaro V. Lapez, as well as Ex Officio member, Atty. Josephine F. Fernandez, conducted the nomination for re-election of independent directors on May 9, 2023 during their joint meeting via MS Teams.

After assessing the qualifications of the nominees, and ensuring Ms. Claire Ann T. Yap, Mr. Philip S. L. Tsai, Mr. Genaro V. Lapez, and Mr. Antonio S. Espedido, Jr. were all qualified to be independent directors, in accordance with the screening policies and parameters of the cited provisions of the SRC and MORB Sections 132 and 138, the Committees then prepared the final list of candidates containing the names, ages, positions and offices such nominees held or would hold, term of office and brief description of the business experience of the nominees.

Upon initial determination, based on the Nomination Form and attachments submitted to the Nomination and Corporate Governance Committees, and on the Rules Governing the Nomination and Election of an Independent Director, the nominees for independent directors were found to be fit and proper for the position they were nominated to and were found to possess all the qualifications and none of the disqualifications of an independent director, and their qualities are aligned with the Bank's strategic directions.

The required Annual Corporate Governance Report (ACGR) for the year 2021 was submitted to the SEC on June 30, 2022.

(f) Involvement in Legal Proceedings

There are pending cases for and against the Bank arising from normal business activities. In the opinion of the Management and the Legal Counsel, the Bank has no material pending legal proceedings to which the Bank is a party or which any of its property is the subject.

(g) Significant Employee

The registrant is not highly dependent on the services of certain key personnel.

(h) Relationship and Related Transactions

Through its Related Party Transactions Committee (RPT Committee), the Bank ensures that all transactions between the Bank and related parties are evaluated “fairly and at arm’s length” and that the primordial consideration is the best interest of the Bank and all its stakeholders. In the ordinary course of business, the Bank has loans and other transactions with its directors, officers, stockholders and related interest (DOSRI), which were made substantially on terms not less favorable to the Bank than those offered by others. Related party transactions other than DOSRI are regularly reported to the RPT Committee, which vets whether a related party transaction is/has been in accordance with the principles of transparency and fairness, taking into account the requirements under BSP Circular No. 749, BSP Circular No. 895 and BSP Circular 969 and its Board-approved Policy on Related Party Transactions.

None of the directors or officers is related to each other within the fourth civil degrees either by consanguinity or affinity.

7. Independent Public Accountants

External Audit Fees and Services

SyCip Gorres Velayo & Co. (SGV & Co.) has been the Bank's independent auditor for more than 10 years and was again approved for appointment at the annual stockholders' meeting on June 16, 2022. In compliance with SEC Memorandum Circular No. 8, Series of 2003, and Amendments to SRC Rule 68 on the rotation of external auditors or signing partners of a firm every after five (5) years of engagement, Mr. Regienald G. Radam was assigned starting 2022 as SGV & Co. partner-in-charge for the Bank.

This is also in accordance with Section 164 and Appendix 39 of the Manual of Regulations for Banks (MORB), as amended by BSP Circular No. 660 dated August 25, 2009, which mandates, among others, that the External Auditor hired by the registrant’s parent corporation, China Banking Corporation (CBC), shall also be in charge of the audit of its subsidiary that is engaged in allied activities, such as CBS. Mr. Regienald G. Radam as partner-in-charge assigned for the audit of the Financial Statements of CBS as of and for the period ended December 31, 2022.

None of the Bank's external auditors have resigned during the two (2) most recent fiscal years (2022 and 2021) or any interim period.

Mr. Regienald G. Radam and other representatives of SGV & Co., are expected to be present at the stockholders' meeting to respond to any matter that may be pertinently raised during the meeting. Their representative will be given the opportunity to make a statement if they so desire.

Representatives of SGV & Co., are expected to be present at the stockholders' meeting via Zoom Platform and will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and will be available to answer appropriate questions.

Fiscal Year	Audit and Audit-Related Fees
2022	P2,836,000
2021	P2,336,000

The above audit fees are inclusive of the other assurance and related services by the External Auditor that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit of the Bank's financial statements.

The Board and Audit Committee approve, among others, the audit fees and fees for non-audit services, if any, of the external auditors as stated in Article IV, paragraph 8 of the Committee's Charter.

SGV & Co., also confirmed that they did not have any disagreement with Management that could be significant to the Bank's financial statements or their auditor's report. Further, there are no matters that in their professional judgment may reasonably be thought to bear on their independence or that they gave significant consideration to in reaching the conclusion that independence has not been impaired.

8. Compensation Plans:

The Bank's compensation plan for its officers is contained in its Remuneration and Compensation Policies. It covers annual salary increases, performance bonus, and increases due to promotion. For each item, the policies specify coverage, the amount or basis of the increase or bonus, the effective date of increase or bonus, and other relevant details. Annual salary increases and performance bonuses are performance-based. Performance of officers, in turn, is rated under separate policies and specific guidelines.

19. Voting Procedures and Methods by which Votes will be counted.

1. Any stockholder shall be allowed to vote in accordance with the guidelines for participation via remote communication and voting in absentia (schedule A), or by proxy duly executed in writing, and signed by the person represented.
2. The election of Board of Directors is by majority voting. The stockholder may vote such number of shares for as many persons as there are directors or he may cumulate said share and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors elected multiplied by the number of his shares shall equal or he may distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates as he shall see fit.
3. Every stockholder entitled to vote on the particular question or matter involved shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each share of stock in his name.
4. The Committee of Election Inspectors, headed by the Corporate Secretary, shall adopt the rules of procedures for balloting, act as election inspectors and ensure the proper and orderly conduct of elections. The Committee of Election Inspectors, with the assistance of the External Auditor's partner-in-charge, Mr. Regienald G. Radam, shall have the power to rule on all issues pertaining to the election of directors, validity of proxies voting of shares, including counting of votes cast.

5. A majority voting is required for the ratification of the acts of the Board of Directors and management and for the appointment of External Auditor.
